“ So sad to hear of Rays passing. I met him many years ago through Jenny. They made a great couple. I was so happy that Jenny had found such a sweet, caring, humorous guy. The times i had shared with Ray and Jenny were always fun. I know he was so very kind to everyone. RIP Ray Ray.

“ I haven't processed you being gone fully. We didn't spend a lot of time together and I regret that, I remember when I was little we used to get up early to take grandma somewhere in the morning and we would sit there and listen to movies and I will always remember when you would reach back to tickle me. I will always remember how much of a great person you were, and I will forever miss you. Love you always

“ I still can't believe that you are gone. I am so lucky to have been able to have you in my life. You have always been there for me no matter what and I want you to know that I appreciate everything. I wish I would've known that what was going on was more serious than what I thought or what you let on so I could've maybe pushed you to a better doctor that could maybe have prevented this. You are loved and are so very missed. Until we meet again, Ray Ray.

“ I remember way back before cell phone, we use to talk on a c b radio. I was Barbie Doll, Scott was Lazy Bones, Cindy was Muppet Baby, David was Dennis the Menace, and Hubert was Hush Puppy. It was a fun (but not private) way to talk and make sure you were safe on your travels.

“ I want to thank all of you for your expressions of sympathy and love. The Love is felt and returned to you many times over! In my rush to get everything done and make sure to include everyone, I failed to include one of the most important people in mine and Dads life, my Grandma Lonnie Payton. She was Dads stepmother and one of the most wonderful people I have ever known. If I have hurt anyone in my haste I am truly sorry, It was not my intent to exclude her.
