“ Libby, I am so sorry for your family's loss. They have many special memories of and with a beautiful person. Did you really charge the neighborhood kids "to come and watch the carport skating shows...?" Funny! God be with you and your family, Libby.

“ Dearest Libby, you were truly a part of our family since you & Kathy were in 7th grade. You were a good friend to her, even when it was not easy. I remember your laugh, I remember the way you and my dad carried on, I remember you being around while I was growing up and sitting around our kitchen table gossiping, eating shoestring french fries and watching soap operas. Although we lost touch, you are the kind of person that stays in someone's heart forever. There are not that many people in my world that share the memories I have of my family, and they are precious to me. Godspeed Libby Amburgy.

“ When I close my eyes and think of you and our neighborhood experiences, I am reminded of our carport “skating shows/productions” at your house, that we charged younger neighborhood kids to come watch 🛼. As time passed and we grew up, I am reminded of your sweetness, your consummate beauty and that wonderful smile. Rest-in-peace, Libby.
