“ I have fond childhood memories of many Christmas evenings spent in the home of Michelle and her parents. She contributed to the many "skits" we put on for the adults. I'm sure this was just the beginning of her life of creativity.

“ Very sorry to hear this. I only met Michelle a handful of times, but are distantly related thru the Kirwan line. She was very proud of her Irish roots and enjoyed discussing genealogy. All my best to the family and I am sorry for your loss. With sincere condolences, Caroline Robinson.

“ I was sorry to read about Michelle's death. I remember fun times with her at UL and at the Sigma Kappa sorority house where she used her creativeness. I regret that I lost touch with her. You have my sincere sympathy, Ann Montgomery
